

GEORGIA GERONTOLOGY SOCIETY

Board Nominations

The Georgia Gerontology Society (GGS) is lead by a 30 member Board of Directors and 4 officers: President, Vice President, Secretary, and Treasurer. The Board members each serve three year terms and are eligible to serve 2 full terms. The Officers serve one year terms.

As part of the GGS Mission to “promote quality leadership in aging for the benefit of older Georgians and their families,” the Nominating Committee actively solicits nominations from the entire membership for persons to serve on the Board of Directors and for persons willing to be nominated for one of the four offices.

As a member of GGS, you are invited to submit nominations to the Nominations Committee on or before Thursday, May 15, 2008. Nominees must meet the following criteria:

- ◆ Individual membership to GGS required
- ◆ Ability to incur own expenses for travel, meals and conference registration
- ◆ Availability to participate in board meetings and GGS functions
- ◆ Make GGS a personal charitable contribution
- ◆ Willingness to serve on a minimum of one board committee
- ◆ Commitment to recruit other GGS members
- ◆ Flexibility to network among various professions and organizations specializing in aging issues
- ◆ Participate in formulating creative ideas for the growth and development of GGS
- ◆ Advocate on behalf of older Georgians
